PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Hello Members,

It's that time of year again with the AGM coming up for next meeting. We need some new people on the committee. Please do not be put off that you are new! It's not an impediment. It's a great way to get to know the running of your club. The experienced committee are very helpful and encouraging! There are some vacancies coming up as I for one am stepping down as president, Jane Zandi and others also. Although, I will stay on the committee to help out. You can nominate before the meeting or from the floor. The experience is fantastic and we support one and all.

So, all you talented artists, if you enjoy working with likeminded people and want a bit of fun with us too, please contribute to this famous Art Society by joining the committee.

I will present the president's report at the meeting but in the meantime I would like to thank you all for making the past year such a pleasant experience.

Looking forward to seeing you at the next July meeting. Happy painting.

Lucy Papalia.

AGM - The Annual General Meeting will be held in the July meeting. Several committee members are stepping down, including our President, Lucy Papalia. Please consider putting your name forward for these vacant positions. Without a committee there is no WA Society of Arts.

DEMONSTRATOR AT NEXT MEETING (18TH JULY) - KAROL OAKLEY

Karol is a Master Pastellist, a professional artist and Tutor and we are looking forward to her demonstration and input. She can be contacted on www.onlinepastelllearning.com if you are interested in your very own pastel workshops, courses, demonstrations and more.

If you have any favourite artists who might like to demonstrate at future meetings, please let the committee know their details

If you have any favourite artists who might like to demonstrate at future meetings, please let the committee know their details.

Perth Plein Air Painters have been invited to announce the following on the WASA Newsletter:

“We now have 3 locations every week. On Mondays, we have a North and a South of the river location. On Thursdays, we rotate the locations to cover all, North, South, Central and East. The best way to advertise is to invite people to join << Perth Plein Air Painters >> on Facebook. To be accepted in the group, one must answer three questions to be a member, it is an easy to follow application. From this stage all members can see the events details every week. The locations are posted on Facebook only a few days prior to the event, the weather being often the reason for the late selection of locations. There are no charges or fees to participate.”
