

General Meeting: Thursday, 15th September 2022 at 19:00

The Palms Community Centre, Subiaco

We show our respects and acknowledge the traditional custodians and owners of this land, of elders past and present, on which this meeting takes place.

Welcome

Members Present: 25

Guests: 0

Apologies: Roger Reading Pippin Margaria Jo Duffy
Suzanne Lawson Alan Pickering Jenny Davies
Jana Taylor Meredith Sonder-Sorensen

Meeting opened at: 19:10

Minutes of the previous meeting are recognised as accurate

Prop: Jane Woods Seconded: Jane Holfreter

Welcome to new members: Joanna Sosna Britt March Anne Gilkes
Diana Neggo Jeanette Preston David Jay

Correspondence In: - FLWAG Notes Update, A Naarstig
- Film Approval, C Gartner

Correspondence Out: - Permission to Film, R Reading
- Antonia Naarstig Notes Confirmation, R Reading
- Britt March Membership Confirmation, A Adams
- Government Arts Policy Response, R Reading

Financial Report: Figures supplied by Meredith, presented by Amanda

No questions

October Competition Theme: Botanical With a Twist

October Guest Demonstrator: Marcus Beilby

October Artist of the Month: Mia Liang

General Business:

Our sincere appreciation is extended to our members who have supported;

- Artist of the Month, September, Richard Bristow
- Rob Kornweibel in selecting our new venue for the 2023 event.
14th – 16th April at South Perth Community Hall.
- WASA 2023 Calendar, David Harrison's tireless preparation
- Wattle Day, all our members who entered the Wattle Day Plein Air Competition.
Our committee for running the 3rd September despite the wild, woolly weather.
City of South Perth Historical Society for inviting us to Wattle Day. We are pleased to announce we have been invited back to host the 2023 Wattle Day Plein Air Event.
Winners are on display at South Perth Historical Society, Friday - Sunday, ? to ?
There is a video up on our website and YouTube channel, please follow and like.
- Army Art would like to express their gratitude to WASA members who stepped up to make the first 13 Brigade Family Day Exhibition at Irwin Barracks a success.
13 CSSB has extended an invitation to return to 2023's event.

Bragging Rights:

- Wattle Day Winners, Gordon Alexander and Paul Drury, the People's Choice
- Artist in Residence, Rottnest, Dave Conlin
- South Australia Kennedy Art Prize Finalists, Suzanne Lawson and Jenny Davies
- Mission to Seafarers Maritime Art Award Finalist, Mia Laing
- Perth Royal Art Prize Finalist, Jo Duffy

Upcoming Exhibitions:

- The Friends of the Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery: Annual Quick Draw Plein Air

Competition, 22nd October at the University of Western Australia and WASA is joining forces. Total $1,000 in prize money, First Prize $250.

- Bicciart, 'We Both Have a Point' Exhibition, Kirsten Shenton-Smith is collaborating with Kieron Photography in an exhibition from 15th - 24th September at Earlywork Gallery, South Fremantle.
- Watercolour Society Annual Awards Exhibition, 7-9th October at the Fremantle Italian Club including workshops featuring renowned master watercolourist Megha Kapoor, from 2nd to 4th with some spots are still available.
- Plein Air Down Under is in Mandurah 24-26th September
- Shipwreck Museum, Explore the World of Watercolour continues to 30th October
- Royal Flying Doctors Service 'Spirit of the Landscape', at Mandurah Performance Centre

Prize Giving: Certificates will be presented at October's meeting however;

Best Self-Portrait and People's Choice Winner – Wayne McGowan

Introduction to our demonstrator, Rob Korweibel – The Art of Perspective & Shadow.

Next meeting: Thursday, 20th October

Meeting closed: @ 19.55

Minutes compiled by: Amanda Adams – Secretary

Ratified at Committee meeting:

Signed into Record by:

Electronic signature

Date:

