February – Jan Steinberg

6. Membership Update: 222 total Current Members

7. Financial Update:

There has been a review of all members throughout Membership Mouse. There is a membership 'bible' that will be available at reception each meeting so you are able to easily cross reference when your membership is due for renewal.

MemberMouse, alongside most subscription programs, needs to be manually unsubscribed or it will automatically debit the card. Members, please note that once paid, you need to go back into your account to unsubscribe to avoid auto-debit occurrences.

A copy of the financials are attached. Balances were presented to the membership.

8. Events:

16th – 19th May – WASA 2024 Exhibition – all entry information is available on the website. T's notes

Any artwork that is completed that you would like considered for flyers and catalogue please contact Tanya and she can also help with high quality photographs.

Sponsor packages are also available on the website. There will also be a Posthumous category to recognise members who have passed in the previous year. $300 has started the pot that will go towards a prize/recognition in their name.

It is proposed that entry fees increase by $5 per artwork this year to absorb general increases in costs. Commission will remain at 25%.

We wish to acknowledge the May Gibbs Family with an honorary membership to the Society. There are no voting rights, or fees however they will be included as guests in our exhibitions.

Majority members in support by show of hands.

Youth Awards – Supported by WASA. It will be held in Perth, September 2024 and is being coordinated by Ernst Schneider.

Plein Air at Government – April 2024 over one weekend Anyone who is participating needs to follow protocols associated with the property. Pippin will give them support.
